

Experiential session: Do your own podcast

Worksheet for Part 4

Step 1: Organize into groups of 3 or 4.

Step 2: Discuss the following questions in your groups:

- A. What kind of format would you like as your main tool?
  - a. Discussion, interview, explanation (educational), programmatic?
- B. What kinds of philosophy interest you most?
- C. What would the public be interested in hearing in relation to philosophy? What would be unique about your podcast?
- D. Who is your target audience?

Step 3: Create a name for your podcast as well as a mission for it.

Step 4: Do a rough outline of an episode. Include an episode summary, length, and ways you would go about creating it given the information from the workshop as well as your podcast's mission.

Step 5: Present your podcast name and mission, answers to A-D, and your episode summary to the rest of workshop participants.
